

MSJ Spring Meeting 2021 (Keio University)

Live streaming of Regular talks and Invited talks in research sections will be recorded, and the records will be made available to members.

All the Regular talks and Invited talks in research sections will be live streamed to regular members using a Zoom Video Webinar. The talks will also be recorded in the Zoom cloud, and the recordings will be made available in case there are members whose network environment is insufficient.

The movies of the talks will be available as follows:

Available to: regular members and supporting members

Movies are available for three days after each talk

Talks on	Recordings Available until
15th Mar.	18th Mar. 23:59
16th Mar.	19th Mar. 23:59
17th Mar.	20th Mar. 23:59
18th Mar.	21st Mar. 23:59

Your application for a talk will be deemed that you have agreed that your talk will be recorded and can be seen online in the manner stated above. The records are used only for this purpose.

- If you have any problem with the connection and cannot enter on time, your talk will be cancelled. If you are interrupted during your talk, the talk will also be cancelled. In both cases, your talk will be considered to be presented by uploading your abstract.

The copy right of each record belongs both to the speaker and the Mathematical Society of Japan. Visit the following URL (in Japanese) for details:

https://www.mathsoc.jp/assets/pdf/overview/committee/publication/news20100723/copyright_abstract.pdf